From Our Leaders

Community is Our Favorite Word!

At the Greater Salina Community Foundation, the most important word in our name is “Community”. As a “community”, the Salina area really is a group of caring and unselfish people, and we all work together creating a place where people want to be.

As a lifelong Salinan, I’ve always thought of Salina as a wonderful community—that’s why I never left. As a young man, I looked up to the people whose names I would hear time and again, and how they were going above and beyond to make Salina a great place. Many of those names are an important part of our history, and some are Founding Donors of the Greater Salina Community Foundation. As people make their mark on Salina during their working years, the Foundation is a great way to continue and strengthen that mark for years to come.

Salina has prospered in various ways over the last several years; we can see it all over town. During times of prosperity there are still challenges faced by many not so easily seen. Generous donors continue to start new funds and support current funds to meet the challenges of tomorrow.

Since 1999, when the Foundation was formed, we have gained hundreds of new funds, and hundreds of new donors. The Foundation provides a platform for building and holding a pool of permanent endowment funds so that donors can more easily fulfill their charitable desires, well beyond their lifetime, and help other local nonprofits increase capacity to fulfill their missions.

Like everyone, the Foundation has experienced market fluctuations that have certainly been a challenge over the last couple of years. However, we are still in a good place. The Foundation continues to receive support for the many diverse funds, and our fundholders continue to support their favorite causes.

Thank you everyone for playing an important part in our ‘community’!

We Have a New Look!

We are excited to announce that we have a new logo that represents our forever commitment to our community and surrounding areas. Like the infinity sign that the new logo was derived from, the Greater Salina Community Foundation is here forever to help you impact today and transform tomorrow.

The funds you invest with the Community Foundation will be here forever to support your passions and benefit future generations. Not only will the funds be here forever, but through prudent investing and management, your funds will grow exponentially over time making an even bigger impact in the future. That is the power of endowment.

See pages 10 and 11 to see how your funds can grow over time and why Gayle and Jane McMillen decided to set up a donor advised fund.

Feature Story

Salina Kanvas Project

Big Ideas

“One Wall at a Time”. That is the motto of Salina Kanvas Project, a local effort led by co-founders, Travis Young and Eric Montoy.

Travis and Eric started Salina Kanvas Project in 2020 to provide a catalyst for growth of our community through the commission of world-class murals and street art in Salina Downtown. Since then, the downtown landscape has been transformed into a world-class public art gallery that one might expect to see in a big city.

“The idea for Salina Kanvas Project was inspired by this idea of creating an ‘Eiffel Tower’ or ‘Ball of Twine’ in Salina,” said Eric. “Salina needed a landmark that would draw people to come see it. Something that was always available to the public, that didn’t require a ticket to see, and that would also beautify its surroundings.”

The ‘Eiffel Tower,’ of Salina (Mural at the Mill) was completed in August 2021. World-renowned Australian artist Guido Van Helten painted the 100-foot tall H.D. Lee Flour Mill on North Santa Fe with a scene of children playing “Ring Around the Rosie.” The mural was inspired by children and represents Salina’s next leaders, as well as a great place to raise a family.

The next project was completed shortly after in September of 2021 with a bold and colorful mural by Sike Style at The Yard.

Funded by the Community

All projects have been privately funded through the generosity of people in our community. The first project, Mural at the Mill was underwritten by John and Kim Vanier, which was fitting as the 122-year-old mill was once owned by his grandfather and entrepreneur, J.J. Vanier.

In order to accept tax deductible donations, Salina Kanvas Project established the Salina Kanvas Mural & Street Art Project Fund at the Community Foundation. The Community Foundation handles the fund’s administrative work allowing Salina Kanvas Project to focus 100% on their mission.

“We decided to open a fund at the Community Foundation so that we could focus on our strengths, which is bringing high caliber art to Salina,” said Montoy. “Not knowing how successful this would be, it was great working with GSCF so they could do what they do well, which is the fund management piece.”

Since the fund was established, donations large and small keep coming in to collectively support future murals in downtown Salina.

Boom! Salina

Shortly after the completion of the first two murals, Salina Kanvas Project shifted its focus and launched the first BOOM! Salina Street Art and Mural Festival in October 2022. In cooperation with Salina Arts & Humanities, the Stiefel Theatre, Theatre Salina, Salina Area Chamber of Commerce, The Salina Art Center, Salina 2020, and Salina Downtown, Inc., the Salina Kanvas Project brought in world-renowned muralists from the East and West Coasts and Europe to paint and transform five buildings downtown.

“The goal of the festival is to foster a creative culture in downtown Salina and bolster tourism by bringing foot traffic to the downtown area,” said Montoy. “We want to enhance the visual landscape of our city and attract large-scale murals downtown."

In addition to visual arts, the festival also hosted live music and talks with the artists, including Martha Cooper, a renowned documentary photographer.

What's Next?

Planning for next year's Boom Festival is already underway and is scheduled for October 7th, 2023.

When asked what Eric hopes will come from all of this, he said he wants people to be inspired by their surroundings, and "to change the mindset of young people by giving the next generation a reason to come back and raise a family."

Economic Impact

Salina continues to transform itself into one of Kansas' most desirable cities to live in. Public and private investments in our community's infrastructure have driven our economic engine and created a better quality of life for all. In 2022, Saline County experienced the State's highest GDP growth rate, while the Arts, Entertainment, and Recreation industry brought in $13,800,000 compared to the previous record of $9,900,000 in 2014. For the first time in a decade, Salina has grown in population.

Donor Advised Funds

Play an Active Role in Charitable Giving

Donor advised funds are a simple and flexible “charitable savings account” that let you decide when and where to give.

Case Study:

When you invest in a donor advised fund, your contribution has the ability to grow tax free while also allowing you to make grants each year to support your favorite charities. Below is a real-life example of a GSCF donor advised fund established in 2001 in which the donors annually support their church and favorite charity, Domestic Violence Association of Central Kansas (DVACK).

In 20 years, the original $10,500 gift has almost tripled in size, growing to a fund balance of $27,500. Most importantly, the fund has awarded over $12,000 in grants, exceeding the original donation, and that will only continue to grow. This is the power of endowed giving and permanent funds.

Power of endowment

This example is based on a 5% annual payout with a 1% administrative fee and a 10-year annualized 8.29% rate of return (as of 6/30/2022)

Fund Story

A Duet of Giving Back

Gayle and Jane McMillen grew up in Clearwater, Kansas, where they were both active members of the same church. Their love of playing the piano and organ brought them together at a young age and they quickly became a dynamic duet duo both in music and in life.

In 1973, shortly after Gayle and Jane were married, they moved to Salina, Kansas, after Gayle received a job offer from Kansas Wesleyan University. They quickly started a family and planted their roots in the Salina community by becoming involved in their church and musical arts. Gayle transitioned from Kansas Wesleyan to teaching band in elementary and high school, and Jane was an elementary school teacher.

Giving back was simply a part of both Gayle's and Jane's upbringing. Jane remembers her mom saying, "If they need a refrigerator, we need to give them a refrigerator". Gayle's family never had a lot of money, but his father would continuously work 8-hour days and then put in extra hours doing community service. Being brought up around people that gave back at home, at church and in the community taught Gayle and Jane the importance of helping others.

Although their main interests are the church and the arts, the McMillen's main goal is to support the community in which their daughters grew up. Each year at Christmas, they gift their children a specific amount of money from their donor advised fund and have them grant it out to any charity of their choice. "It is always fun to see which organizations they choose. Sometimes it's an organization we would expect and sometimes it is something we would have never thought of," Gayle said.

After years of supporting their community in various ways, Gayle began looking into community foundations as he was the president of the Kansas Music Educators Association (KMEA). Through his extensive research he concluded that the Greater Salina Community Foundation was the place for the KMEA Fund and for Jane and he to start a Donor Advised Fund. Through their fund they have been able to continue to give to the nonprofits they have always given to while at the same time expand their giving to new community interests.

Having a donor advised fund at the Community Foundation makes giving easy for the McMillens because they can do all their charitable giving from one fund and don't have to write multiple checks. "Essentially, the Community Foundation takes all the work away from us," said Gayle. "We make the decision on where to give, and they write the check." The funds are also managed in a way that the fund will continue to grow in size even though the McMillens are making grants. Giving is just second nature to them and their goal is to keep their fund going as long as possible.

Through their fund they have been able to continue to give to the nonprofits they have always given to while at the same time expand their giving to new community interests.

Affiliate Fund Story - Blessed by Clara

When we sat down with Matt and Tynan Dowell, you could immediately see how much they loved their family and Republic County. Matt had ties to Republic County where his family farmed and when he and Tynan were dating he made it clear that he and Republic County were a package deal. Tynan ended up accepting a teaching position there and the rest is history. Together they have four children—two boys and two girls. And as most fathers might agree, Matt pointed out that having daughters is “just a little different,” than having sons.

And he was right! On May 22, 2020, Clara DeLou entered the world with bright blonde hair, a feature that no one else in the family had. They knew at that moment she would be special.

Clara always had a smile on her face and loved her older brothers, Clayton and Mason. In fact, she learned to crawl and walk early just to keep up with them! Clara loved being outside picking mulberries and was meant to be on the family farm. She enjoyed playing with, and watching the chickens and cats, as well as going on field checks with her dad. “Being outside was her thing,” said Tynan.

Clara passed away at just 14 months of age. During this unimaginable time, Matt and Tynan needed to find something positive to focus on. They were blessed by their family, friends and even people they had never met, and they quickly realized that they needed to do something with these blessings to honor Clara’s life and legacy.

Matt is a board member of the Republic County Community Foundation, and they came up with the idea of starting a scholarship fund in Clara’s name. This would allow them to not only carry on Clara’s legacy, it would help them return the blessing by helping people in the future.

The ideal candidate recipient of the Clara Dowell Legacy Scholarship is a female who lives and wants to return to a rural area after college. “Clara lived her whole life in a rural area. It will be great to see girls receive this scholarship that babysat Clara, or in the future, girls that would have gone to school with her,” said Matt.

The first recipient received a scholarship in May of 2022, which would have also been Clara’s birthday. “Awarding the scholarship every May ties it all together,” said Tynan. “It helps us celebrate Clara in a way in which we hope she would be proud of us.” The Dowells have created a legacy memory book. This book will be a place to read the hopes and plans of the scholarship applicants. They hope this will honor Clara and be a beautiful memory of her for her family to cherish over time.

Starting a fund at the Republic County Community Foundation allowed them to focus on something they were passionate about and honor Clara. Matt and Tynan can’t send their daughter to school, but hopefully this scholarship can bless someone else in the way others blessed them.
